PART A -- DISCLOSURE

(Standalone Fair Credit Reporting Act Notice)

Wrrapd, Inc. ("Wrrapd") may obtain one or more consumer reports and/or investigative consumer reports about you for use in connection with your application to become a WrapRider independent contractor (gift-wrapping and driving / delivery services), access to the WrapRider App, and, if engaged, for purposes related to your continued engagement, including assignment eligibility, trust and safety, and compliance.

Consumer reports and investigative consumer reports may include information concerning your:

- Criminal history;
- Identity verification;
- Motor vehicle records (driving history);
- Prior addresses and other public-record information; and
- Other information bearing on your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

An investigative consumer report is a consumer report in which information about character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living is obtained through personal interviews with neighbors, friends, associates, or others. If Wrrapd requests an investigative consumer report, you have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable time, to receive additional disclosures regarding the nature and scope of the investigation and a summary of your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA").

Wrrapd may obtain such reports before you begin providing services and periodically during your engagement, consistent with applicable law.

Note: The WrapRider role includes driving. Applicants also upload an official driving record / abstract with the application.

Wrrapd will use a third-party consumer reporting agency (the "Agency"). When Wrrapd designates an Agency, Wrrapd will provide the Agency's name, address, and telephone number in the Platform, onboarding materials, or a supplemental notice. You may contact the Agency regarding your report as permitted by the FCRA.

A summary of your rights under the FCRA is available from the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (or successor agency) and will be provided as required by law (including with any pre-adverse or adverse action notice).

This Part A is a disclosure only. It does not authorize Wrrapd to obtain reports. Your authorization appears in Part B below.

PART B -- AUTHORIZATION

This authorization remains in effect during my application and, if I am engaged, during my engagement unless I revoke it in writing (revocation does not affect reports already obtained).
